CITY NEWS.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty cents per week.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance of twenty-five per cent. on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be sent at the rate of twenty cents per week, or four dollars per month, or seven dollars per year—always in advance.

In the telegraphic column we publish the short address of Mr. Geo. Meade to the soldiers of his command. From this address we infer that the army is advancing and that the battles every recorded in the annals of history. That there is a very large rebel force to confront our army there can be no doubt, and the battle now about waging will be terrible in its slaughter and decisive in its result. We shall momentarily expect stirring news from the campaign in Virginia, while the people are looking with anxiety for news from the Army of the Cumberland. That great battles are impending and that the public mind is feverish in anticipation of the stirring news that awaits them is natural enough. We shall endeavor to keep our readers fully posted.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Thursday, May 5th.
John Burton was hauled out of the Work House.
W. H. Todd, charged with unlawfully taking away trucks, &c., of Blanch Oakford and threatening to kill her; security in $150 to answer a misdemeanor in this court.
Pat. Connors, very drunk and disorderly conduct; fined $5.
Charles Woodley (f. m. c.), drunk and disorderly conduct; fined $5.
Martha Magill, drunkness; discharged.
Several warrants were called and disposed of.

Another serious railroad accident occurred on the Nashville railroad near Gallatin yesterday morning. The train came into collision, and in the general wreck we learn three men were killed, and several seriously wounded. Some twenty-five others were wounded. We did not learn the names of the killed, but suppose them to be members of the Tenth Indiana cavalry en route to the front. We shall hereafter learn the particulars and give them to our readers.

BARRECKS ITEMS.—The receipts at the barracks yesterday were 175 recruits from the 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, May 4.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill providing a republican form of government for States subverted and overthrown by the rebellion.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, commenced his speech by saying: My heart's desire and prayer to God is for peace in this distressed land. While urging unqualified and increased exertions of our army and navy to restore the Union, I have been ever ready to heal wounds and check the ravages of war by all rational methods used among nations. To those who can entertain both ideas at the same time this practice has seemed inconsistent, but to those who have read history it will appear that to check strife and to heal wounds are inseparable. We had mournfully thought, constantly, both by voice and vote, upheld the sword, lest even a more alternative than separation and prolonged strife should be our fate. The miseries which this war has entailed have been the work of the Northern Democracy, and if discussion comes through the open doors of June—of recognition of Southern independence comes through the open doors of June—the Democracy are not responsible for the odium. With his word and aid, they never would be held responsible.

Five months have gone since the amnesty proclamation was issued, but we see no signs of thousands of Southern citizens rushing to the aid of the Union. It is conceded that the rebellion is more formidable. Unlike the acts of grace granted by Kings to their rebellious subjects, there is no general taking of the oath, no genuine movement toward the restoration of the seceded States; but a fierce spirit of resistance against the policy of the Executive still prevails throughout the seceded States. There is one check or defect in the President's plan in the structure built upon his proclamation of emancipation; the same defect is observable in the bill of the gentleman from Maryland.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 4.

As an earnest spring campaign is about to commence, I read you the following address from Gen. Meade, our patriotic sentiment, and inspiring philosophy, all tend to, do, and diffuse the same tone and spirit in the hearts of the brave men who will soon march upon the foe.

"SOLDIERS: Again you have been called upon to advance on the enemies of your country. The time and occasion are deemed opportune by your commanding General to address you a few words of confidence and caution. You have been marching on the foe, and fully equipped, in every respect. You form part of the service of your country, the whole under the direction of the President, and distinguished General, who enjoys the confidence of the Government, people, and army. Your movements being in accordance with orders, it is of the utmost importance that you adhere to the discipline of the army, and that you be left unsupplied to make it successful.

"Soldiers, the eyes of the whole country are looking with anxious hope to the blow you are about to strike in the most sacred cause that ever engaged the arms of men. Bear in mind that the winner your enemies are overcome, the sum of your duty is to enjoy the benefits and blessings of peace. With patience the hardships and sacrifices you have endured to endure. Have confidence in your officers, in each other. Keep your ranks on march and on the battlefield, and let each man earnestly improve God's blessing, and endeavor to be worthy of the favor, and to preserve the Government and institutions handed down to us by our forefathers. If true to ourselves, victory, under God's blessing, must and will attend our efforts.

"Major General commanding.

"S. WILLIAMS, A. G."

CINCINNATI, May 5.

The draft begins in the First District this morning.

C. Hayes & Bro's grain warehouse was damaged by fire yesterday to the amount of $1,000, insured.

Gov. Brough has issued a proclamation, thanking the National Guards for their noble response to his call. Guards are rapidly assembling at camp. There has been no collision between the militia and the regulars. Over 6,000 have reported at Camp Dennison.

NEW YORK, May 5.

The World's Washington special reiterates from the front the belief that Lee is abandoning the intrenchments on the Rapid and retreating inland. There has been no collision between the militia and the regulars.

The Herald's Key West letter announces the arrival of the gunboats, the Corbin and the Toga.

Advices from Fort Myers, Charlotte harbor, state that on the 20th of April the detachment of the Second New York (colored troops), under Capt. Crane, landed on the mainland and drove back a rebel force of 1,000 men to either side, captured 300 cattle, and returned on the 25th.

Advices from Mexico, via Havana, report that Alvarez has openly declared for Juarez, and is fortifying himself in Acapulco, which is blockaded by the French ships.

The fortifications at Vera Cruz have been bombarded by a French frigate.

The French are reported to have been defeated in Oajaca and other places, and latterly in Oajaca. The report also says Jalapa will soon be attacked and taken by the Mexicans in Guadalupe. This strongly looks like a canard.

BALTIMORE, April 5.

Accounts from Washington, N. C., are evidently greatly exaggerated. A letter received from Fort Monroe this morning, says several refugees who arrived from Washington report the place being burned last Saturday, probably by guerrillas.

It was a very small town, and in its most prosperous days, had only 3,000 inhabitants. It is said to have been the scene of several million dollars.

A regiment of Pennsylvania reserves, about 350 strong, arrived to-night en route for Pittsburgh to be mustered out of service.

NEW YORK, May 5.

We learn that West Point, Va., at the head of York river, was occupied by a portion of our forces on Monday, the 21st.

NEW YORK, May 5.

The steamer Ocean Queen arrived from Aspinwall, bringing $270,000 in treasure.

CINCINNATI, May 5.

River falls 15 inches, with 19 feet 7 inches in the channel. Weather clear. Thermometer 76; barometer 30.0.

PITTSBURGH, May 5.

River 8 feet 6 inches by the pier mark. Weather clear and warm.

Passengers report that the 10th N. C. was laid in ashes by straggling militia and soldiers at the time of evacuation.

Quartermasters' stores were also destroyed. The city was mainly owned by Union people.

Four thousand Federal troops suddenly evacuated Washington in the face of several companies of rebels, leaving the entire Union population to their mercy, after burning the houses over their heads.

When the United States steamer left the dock the screams of the women and children at being abandoned were pitiful. Indignation against Gen. Butler is very bitter in North Carolina, and a delegation of leading men have gone to Washington to ask his removal. It is said the rebel name have decided to make an attack on the gunboats without waiting for assistance from their army.
